

*In Recognition
Of
Accomplishments
By
NC ASHRM Members*

Fall 2010 NCASHRM – Membership Recognition

Recognition, Designations & Awards

Bonnie Refinski-Knight with Harris, Creech, and Ward & Blackerby serves as the President of North Carolina Association of Defense Attorney. NCADA is an association of approximately 1000 attorneys from across the state whose practices focus on the defense of insurance companies, businesses, and industries

Cindy Cook, Risk Manager, Caldwell Memorial Hospital was recently awarded a $1000 prize by the Southern Nursing Research Society and American Academy of Nursing for development of a podcast entitled “Nurse as Scientist.”

Gwyn Stokes, with Allied World Healthcare received the FASHRM designation at the recent ASHRM conference in Tampa. Gwyn was also elected to ASHRM’s 2011 Nominating Committee.

Sharon Groves with Berkley Medical has received the DFASHRM designation from ASHRM

Brenda Hallett, Risk Manager, Womack Army Medical Center, has received the Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk Management.

Samuel O. Southern with Smith Moore Leatherwood LLP has been re-selected by his peers for inclusion in "Best Lawyers in America 2011" and "North Carolina Super Lawyers 2011" in the field of Health Law.

William R. Forstner with Smith Moore Leatherwood LLP was selected by Business Leader magazine for the "2010 Movers and Shakers" Award for up-and-coming leaders in the community.

Lee Ann Scott, Risk Manager, Duke University Medical Center, has received the Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk Management.

Trina Davis-Smith, Asst. Risk Manager, New Hanover Medical Center, has received the Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk Management.

Congratulations to all!