

Spring 2010 NCASHRM – Membership Recognition

Recognition, Designations & Awards

Sam Southern with Smith Moore Leatherwood was selected the 2010 recipient of the Health Law Section's Distinguished Service Award at the annual meeting at the N.C. Bar Center "in recognition of his lifelong achievements and outstanding contributions to health law, and his exemplary service to health care professionals, the bar and the general public. Full article can be reviewed at <http://www.ncbar.org/about/communications/news/2010-news-articles/health-law-section-honors-southern.aspx>

Ann Lambrecht with McNeary was admitted to the NC Bar this year and will specialize in health care law.

Eva Carman, Risk Manager, University Health Systems of Eastern Carolina has received the Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk Management.

Celia Kane, University Health Systems of Eastern Carolina has received the Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk Management.

Sandra Hall, University Health Systems of Eastern Carolina has received the Certified Professional in Healthcare Risk Management.

Jason Newton, with Yates, McLamb and Weyher was selected as one of the Super Lawyer's Magazine's 2010 Rising Stars (Best NC attorneys under 40); and as Business North Carolina Magazine's 2010 Legal Elite in the "Young Guns" category (again, best NC attorneys under 40).

Bonnie Weyher, with Yates, McLamb and Weyher is currently serving President of the NC State Bar

Barry Cobb, with Yates, McLamb and Weyher was selected as a 2010 Super Lawyers

Carlye Hendershot, with The Van Winkle Law Firm has received her American Association of Legal Nurse Consultants national certification.

Heather M. Kennedy, with Iredell Health System recently published an article titled Healthcare Claims Analysis in Legal Nurse Consulting: Principles and Practices, Third Edition as of February 19, 2010.

Congratulations to all!