

The North Carolina Chapter of ASHRM Presents:

Risk Management Foundations

Risk Management Basics for the New Healthcare Risk Professional

November 9, 2022
Asheville, NC

Healthcare Risk Management is a complex, evolving profession, and a broad range of knowledge and expertise is required for success in the field. Unfortunately, many new Risk Professionals are required to learn on the job, without the benefit of an extended orientation period.

This course is designed to help bridge that learning gap by providing an expert overview of critical knowledge areas that will help jump-start their careers in healthcare risk management.
